

2011 MASSACHUSETTS STATE SCIENCE & ENGINEERING FAIR
PRELIMINARY SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

April 2, 2011

Thursday, May 5, 2011

Advance Student Registration & Set-up 4:00 – 7:00 pm
Johnson Athletics Center/ Rockwell Cage

Friday, May 6, 2011

General Registration, Project Set-Up, Safety
Inspections/Final Approval, Exhibitor Photos, Lunch 7:30 – 11:00 am
Johnson Athletic Center/Rockwell Cage

Welcoming Remarks & Judge Orientation Program 10:45 --11:30 am
Kresge Auditorium

Student Lunch in Exhibit Hall 11:00 -- 11:15 am

Official Opening & Welcoming Remarks 11:15 -- 11:30 am

Judging of Exhibits 11:30 – 6:00 pm
Judges' lunch served 12:30 – 1:45 pm

For Parents of Science Fair Students*

"Financing College Education in Today's Economy" 11:45 – 1:30 pm
Stratton Student Center - Lunch Provided

Science Fair Banquet 6:00 -- 8:15 pm
Stratton Student Center/Lobdell Dining Area

Saturday, May 7, 2011

Tours of the MIT Campus & Broad Institute* 8:30 – 11:30 am
*(*Limited space – students first!)*

Career Opportunities Program* (science & technology fields) 10:15 – 12 noon
Stratton Student Center
Student lunch immediately following, Johnson/Rockwell Cage)

Public Showcase of Exhibits* 12:30 – 3:00 pm
Johnson Athletic Center/ Rockwell Cage

Award Recognition Ceremony* 3:30 – 5:30 pm
Kresge Auditorium

Closing 5:30 – 6:30 pm

While most of the schedule is for science fair students, please note special programs (*) for Science Educators, Judges and Parents, plus individual events, where everyone is welcome.

2011 SCIENCE FAIR EXPO
Featuring Major MSSEF Sponsors & Partners
Sat, May 7 12:30 - 3 pm
Johnson Athletic Center/Rockwell Cage

Eye-catching showcase of exhibits engaging the mind and sparking the scientific spirit. Meet the exhibitors. Find out about the key roles science, technology, engineering and math play in today's business and industry, on college campuses and in professional sectors — including biopharma, health care, invention, and non-profits.